

MEASI Institute of Management

“Association Gardens”, No. 87, Peters Road, Royapettah, Chennai-14.

Alumni Interaction (Batch of 98)

Panel Discussion

Millenials are not Newbies- Critical Success Factors for Job Faring

Held on 18/8/2018 Saturday from 10.00am to 1.30pm

Mrs. W. Shabeena Shah Assistant Professor, organized a Panel Discussion on 18th August 2018 Saturday, The Alumni batch of 98 addressed our students on the critical success factors for job faring. The panel discussion started at around 10.00am with the recitation of versus from Holy Quran by our student Mr. Adnan Jawed followed by translation. Our Director, Dr. D. Nisar Ahmed, delivered the welcome address, Ms. Saniya Farheen, I MBA student introduced the chief guest to the audience.

Session I

The panel for this session comprised of the following Alumni:

1. Moderator: Mrs. W. Shabeena Shah, Assistant Professor, MEASI Institute of Management.
2. Mr. Nikhil Indrasenan Business Head – Antal RPO Solutions,
3. Mr. Sharook Hussain Vice President Sales & Business Development, iSON Technologies FZ LLC. (Middle East & Africa)

The Moderator started the discussion with opening remarks about Millenials MBA students, and how these millennials though they are knowledgeable, tech savvy and well exposed to the information, they are unable to be successful in their jobs. The first question was put to Mr. Nikhil Indrasenan on what personal competence is needed for success in an organization.

The second discussion point was with to Mr. Sharook Hussain about should every employee be a sales man in his job and what selling skills are needed to succeed in an organization.

The third point of discussion was about the technical skills needed to compete and secced in the organization, which was taken up by Mr. Nikhil Indrasenan.

The fourth discussion Point was taken up by Mr. Sharook Hussain about the social competence and networking, relationship building needed in an MBA for faring better in a job.

The first session ended with question and answer session followed by tea.

Session II

The Panel for this session was comprised of successful entrepreneurs for Educational, Hospital, Hotel, and logistics Industry.

1. Moderator: Mrs. W. Shabeena Shah, Assistant Professor, MEASI Institute of Management.
2. Dr. Syed Shujauddin- Entrepreneur & Chief Mentor- Alpha Institute of Medical sciences, Faroqui Multi Speciality Hospital, GEMS News Ind., GEMS Holistic Health Care and Child Development Centre, Global Human Capital Solutions,
3. Mr. Abdul Subhan- Director- CBG Logistics India Pvt. Ltd.
4. Mr. Abdul Rasheed, Owner, Hotel Mount Manor

This session was focused on the success stories and lessons learnt by the entrepreneurs through their journey towards success. The panelists discussed what critical factors are needed for success in a business like- Perseverance, determination, Patience, Passion, Industry specific knowledge and skills, Ownership and initiative etc.

The program ended with question and answer session followed by vote of thanks.