There is no country on earth that offers the visual diversities. North India is well equipped with age old monuments, magnificent Himalaya, deep rooted religious beliefs and modern cities all at the same place. The Tour Trip that is a specially designed educational tour to make our students familiar with India's pride. As soon as we left Taj Mahal, had a lunch in Hotel and again we went to Agra Fort, a half-moon-shaped citadel that once served as the seat of the Mughal Empire. Later on evening, we started the journey to Shimla.

We left Shimla, a journey of 265 kms about 10hrs travel to Kullu-Manali. In between the long travel we visited Apple Juice Factory and we had lunch there and again journey started by road itself, Kullu valley on river beas. It is one of the beautiful district in the state of Himachal Pradesh. At the evening, We visited Shawl Factory located between Kullu-Manali. Nestled in the Himalayas, kullu is a valley gifted with nature's charm and scenic beauty. Splashing rivers, water streams and lofty mountains with finest of slopes make it a place perfect for adventure sports. Late night we reached Manali hotel and had dinner.
